

Cummins-Wagner Finalizes Strategic Acquisition of Envirep to Strengthen Water and Wastewater Market Presence

May 15, 2025

Annapolis Junction, MD – Cummins-Wagner Co., Inc., a leading manufacturer's representative and distributor of industrial, municipal, and commercial equipment, including water and wastewater treatment, HVAC, and plumbing solutions, throughout the Mid-Atlantic and New England, is pleased to announce the finalized acquisition of Envirep.

Headquartered in Camp Hill, PA, Envirep is a well-established manufacturer's representative and distributor specializing in municipal and industrial water and wastewater solutions. The company serves clients across eastern and central Pennsylvania, southern New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland, Washington, D.C., northern Virginia, and eastern West Virginia.

This transaction represents a strategic step in Cummins-Wagner's long-term plan for steady, manageable growth through geographic expansion and market penetration.

"The acquisition of Envirep aligns perfectly with our strategic goal of steady, manageable growth through geographic expansion and market penetration," said Doug Ardinger, CEO of Cummins-Wagner. "Together, we are better positioned to deliver expert engineered solutions and service to the municipal water and wastewater markets across our expanded footprint."

"Joining forces with Cummins-Wagner provides long-term stability and greater resources, ensuring continued growth and support for our customers and manufacturers," said Mike Gillespie, President of Envirep.

As part of the acquisition, Envirep employees will become part of Cummins-Wagner's 100% Employee Stock Ownership Plan (ESOP).

"We're thrilled to welcome Envirep employees as fellow owners through our Employee Stock Ownership Plan," said David Palmer, CFO of Cummins-Wagner. "The ESOP is a meaningful benefit that fosters a shared commitment to our continued success."
